

THE FIVE HUNDRED AND SIXTIETH ACT OF THE PARLIAMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF GHANA

ENTITLED

THE CHILDREN'S ACT, 1998

AN ACT to reform and consolidate the law relating to children, to provide for the rights of the child, maintenance and adoption, regulate child labour and apprenticeship, for ancillary matters concerning children generally and to provide for related matters.

DATE OF ASSENT: 30th December, 1998.

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows—

Part I : The Rihts of the Child

Sub-Part I—Rights of the child and parental duty

1. 1. Definition of child—

For purposes of this Act, a child is a person below the age of eighteen years.

2. Welfare principle—

(1) The best interest of the child shall be paramount in any matter concerning a child.

(2) The best interest of the child shall be the primary consideration by any court, person, institution or other body in any matter concerned with a child.

3. Non-discrimination—

No person shall discriminate against a child on the grounds of gender, race, age, religion, disability, health status, custom, ethnic origin, rural or urban background, birth or other status, socio-economic status or because the child is a refugee.

4. Right to name and nationality—

No person shall deprive a child of the right from birth to a name, the right to acquire a nationality or the right as far as possible to know his natural parents and extended family subject to the provisions of Part IV, Sub-Part II of this Act.

5. Right to grow up with parents—

No person shall deny a child the right to live with his parents and family and grow up in a caring and peaceful environment unless it is proved in court that living with his parents would—

(a) lead to significant harm to the child; or

(b) subject the child to serious abuse; or

(c) not be in the best interest of the child.

6. Parental duty and responsibility—

(1) No parent shall deprive a child his welfare whether—

(a) the parents of the child are married or not at the time of the child's birth; or (b) the parents of the child continue to live together or not.

(2) Every child has the right to life, dignity, respect, leisure, liberty, health, education and shelter from his parents.

(3) Every parent has rights and responsibilities whether imposed by law or otherwise towards his child which include the duty to—

- (a) protect the child from neglect, discrimination, violence, abuse, exposure to physical and moral hazards and oppression;
- (b) provide good guidance, care, assistance and maintenance for the child and assurance of the child's survival and development;
- (c) ensure that in the temporary absence of a parent, the child shall be cared for by a competent person and that a child under eighteen months of age shall only be cared for by a person of fifteen years and above except where the parent has surrendered his rights and responsibilities in accordance with law.

(4) Each parent shall be responsible for the registration of the birth of their child and the names of both parents shall appear on the birth certificate except if the father of the child is unknown to the mother.

7. Right to parental property—

No person shall deprive a child of reasonable provision out of the estate of a parent whether or not born in wedlock.

8. Right to education and well-being—

(1) (1) No person shall deprive a child access to education, immunization, adequate diet, clothing, shelter, medical attention or any other thing required for his development.

(2) (2) No person shall deny a child medical treatment by reason of religious or other beliefs.

9. Right to social activity—

No person shall deprive a child the right to participate in sports, or in positive cultural and artistic activities or other leisure activities.

10. Treatment of the disabled child—

(1) (1) No person shall treat a disabled child in an undignified manner.

(2) (2) A disabled child has a right to special care, education and training wherever possible to develop his maximum potential and be self-reliant.

11. Right of opinion—

No person shall deprive a child capable of forming views the right to express an opinion, to be listened to and to participate in decisions which affect his well-being, the opinion of the child being given due weight in accordance with the age and maturity of the child.

12. 12. Protection from exploitative labour—

No person shall subject a child to exploitative labour as provided under section 87 of this Act.

13. Protection from torture and degrading treatment—

(1) No person shall subject a child to torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment including any cultural practice which dehumanises or is injurious to the physical and mental well-being of a child.

(2) No correction of a child is justifiable which is unreasonable in kind or in degree according to the age, physical and mental condition of the child and no correction is justifiable if the child by reason of tender age or otherwise is incapable of understanding the purpose of the correction.

14. Right to refuse betrothal and marriage—

(1) No person shall force a child—

- (a) to be betrothed;
- (b) to be the subject of a dowry transaction; or
- (c) to be married.

(2) The minimum age of marriage of whatever child shall be eighteen years.

15. Penalty for contravention—

Any person who contravenes a provision of this Sub-Part commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ~5 million or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year or to both.

Sub-Part II—Care and protection

16. District Assembly to protect children—

(1) A District Assembly shall protect the welfare and promote the rights of children within its area of authority and shall ensure that within the district, governmental agencies liaise with each other in matters concerning children.

(2) The Social Welfare and Community Development Department of a District Assembly referred to in this Act as “the Department” shall investigate cases of contravention of children’s rights.

17. Persons to report child abuse and protection cases—

Any person with information on—

- (a) child abuse; or
- (b) a child in need of care and protection

shall report the matter to the Department.

18. Meaning of care and protection—

(1) (1) For purposes of this Act, a child is in need of care and protection if the child—

- (a) (a) is an orphan or is deserted by his relatives;
- (b) (b) has been neglected or ill-treated by the person who has the care and custody of the child;
- (c) (c) has a parent or guardian who does not exercise proper guardianship;
- (d) (d) is destitute;
- (e) (e) is under the care of a parent or guardian who, by reason of criminal or drunken habits, is unfit to have the care of the child;
- (f) (f) is wandering and has no home or settled place of abode or visible means of subsistence;
- (g) (g) is begging or receiving alms, whether or not there is any pretence of singing, playing, performing, offering anything for sale or otherwise, or is found in any street, premises or place for the purpose of begging or receiving alms;
- (h) (h) accompanies any person when that person is begging or receiving alms, whether or not there is any pretence of singing, playing, performing, offering anything for sale or otherwise;

- (i) (i) frequents the company of any reputed thief or reputed prostitute;
- (j) (j) is residing in a house or the part of a house used by any prostitute for the purpose of prostitution, or is otherwise living in circumstances calculated to cause, encourage or favour the seduction or prostitution of or affect the morality of the child;
- (k) (k) is a person in relation to whom an offence has been committed or attempted under section 314 of the Criminal Code, 1960 (Act 29) on slave dealing;
- (l) (l) is found acting in a manner from which it is reasonable to suspect that he is, or has been, soliciting or importuning for immoral purposes;
- (m) (m) is below the age of criminal responsibility under the Criminal Code, 1960 (Act 29) and is involved in an offence other than a minor criminal matter; or
- (n) (n) is otherwise exposed to moral or physical danger.

(2) A child shall not be considered to come within the scope of paragraphs (i) and (j) of subsection (1) if the only reputed prostitute that the child associates with is his mother and if it is proved that she exercises proper guardianship and care to protect the child from corrupt influences.

19. Investigation by Department—

(1) If the Department has reasonable grounds to suspect child abuse or a need for care and protection, it shall direct a probation officer or social welfare officer accompanied by the police to enter and search the premises where the child is kept to investigate.

(2) The Department shall direct the probation officer or the social welfare officer to refer the matter to a Child Panel established under section 27 of this Act if the child is not in immediate need of care and protection.

(3) If after investigation it is determined that the child has been abused or is in need of immediate care and protection the Department shall direct a probation officer or social welfare officer accompanied by the police to remove the child to a place of safety for a period of not more than seven days.

(4) The child shall be brought before a Family Tribunal by the probation officer or social welfare officer before the expiry of the seven day period for an order to be made.

(5) Until the Family Tribunal determines the order, the Family Tribunal may commit the child to an approved residential home or to the care of a probation officer, social welfare officer or other suitable person.

20. Care order of Family Tribunal—

(1) A Family Tribunal may issue a care order to the Department on an application by a probation officer or social welfare officer under section 19(4).

(2) The care order shall remove the child from a situation where he is suffering or likely to suffer significant harm and shall transfer the parental rights to the Department.

(3) The probation officer or social welfare officer shall take custody of the child and shall determine the most suitable place for the child which may be—

- (a) an approved residential home;
- (b) with an approved fit person; or
- (c) at the home of a parent, guardian or relative.

(4) The maximum duration of a care order shall be three years or until the child attains eighteen years which ever is earliest and the Family Tribunal may make an interim order or may vary the order.

(5) The Family Tribunal may make a further order that the parent, guardian or other person responsible for the child shall pay for the cost of maintaining the child.

(6) A Family Tribunal shall not designate the manager of an institution as an approved fit person to whom the care of a child can be entrusted unless the institution is one which the Minister responsible for Social Welfare has approved by notice published in the Gazette or the institution is assigned that function by or under an Act of Parliament.

21. Supervision order of Family Tribunal—

(1) A Family Tribunal may issue a supervision order to the Department on an application by a probation officer or social welfare officer under section 19(4).

(2) The supervision order shall be aimed at preventing any significant harm being caused to a child whilst he remains at his family home in the custody of his parent, guardian or relative.

(3) The supervision order shall place a child under the supervision of the probation officer or social welfare officer while he remains in the custody of his parent, guardian or relative.

(4) The maximum duration for a supervision order- shall be one year or until the child attains eighteen years.

22. Duties of probation officer and social worker—

The duties of a probation officer or social welfare officer with respect to a care or supervision order are to—

(a) advise and help the child and his family;

(b) take reasonable steps to ensure that the child is not subjected to harm; and

(c) hold regular reviews to plan for the future of the child.

23. Home visits—

A probation officer or social welfare officer shall be permitted by a parent, guardian or relative of the child to visit the child at his family home.

24. General provisions on orders—

(1) A child who contravenes an order from the Family Tribunal and runs away may be apprehended without warrant by the police and returned to the place of the care or supervision order.

(2) The Family Tribunal may make another order where the child has run away in order to place the child elsewhere if the approved fit person is not willing to take the child.

25. Discharge of orders—

A care or supervision order may be discharged in the best interest of the child by the Family Tribunal on the application of—

(a) the child;

(b) a probation officer;

(c) a social welfare officer; or

(d) a parent, guardian or relative of the child.

26. Care order and adoption—

A child under a care order whose parent, guardian or relative does not show an interest in the welfare of the child within a period stipulated by a Family Tribunal may be put up for adoption.

Part II : Quasi-Judicial and Judicial Child Adjudication

Sub-Part I—Child Panels

27. Establishment of Child Panels—

There shall be established in each district such number of Child Panels as the District Assembly may consider necessary.

28. Functions of Child Panels—

A Child Panel shall have non-judicial functions to mediate in criminal and civil matters which concern a child prescribed under this Act.

29. Composition of Child Panel—

- (1) (1) A Child Panel shall consist of the following persons in the relevant district—
 - (a) the Chairman of the Social Services Sub-Committee of a District Assembly who shall be the chairman;
 - (b) a member of a women's organisation;
 - (c) a representative of the Traditional Council;
 - (d) the district social worker, who shall be the secretary;
 - (e) (e) a member of the Justice and Security Sub-Committee of the District Assembly; and
 - (f)(f)two other citizens from the community of high moral character and proven integrity one of whom shall be an educationalist.
- (2) The members of a Child Panel shall be appointed by the Minister.
- (3) The tenure of office of a Child Panel shall be the same as that of the District Assembly.

30. Meetings of Child Panel—

- (1) A Child Panel shall meet as often as may be necessary except that a Child Panel shall meet at least once in every three months.
- (2) The quorum at any meeting of a Child Panel shall be four and in the absence of the Chairman shall be chaired by a member elected by the members present from their number.
- (3) Any agreement made between the parties shall be recorded by the secretary to the Child Panel.
- (4) Any person with a significant interest in a matter before a Child Panel may be invited to attend and participate in its deliberations.
- (5) A Child Panel shall permit a child to express his opinion and participate in any decision which affects the child's well being commensurate with the level of understanding of the child concerned.
- (6) Except as otherwise provided in this Sub-Part a Child Panel shall regulate the procedure at its meetings.

31. Child Panel in civil matters—

A Child Panel may mediate in any civil matter concerned with the rights of the child and parental duties.

32. Child Panel in criminal matters—

(1) A Child Panel shall assist in victim-offender mediation in minor criminal matters involving a child where the circumstances of the offence are not aggravated.

(2) A Child Panel shall seek to facilitate reconciliation between the child and any person offended by the action of the child.

(3) A child appearing before a Child Panel shall be cautioned as to the implications of his action and that similar behaviour may subject him to the juvenile justice system.

(4) A Child Panel may decide to impose a community guidance order on a child with the consent of the parties concerned in the matter.

(5) A community guidance order means placing the child under the guidance and supervision of a person of good standing in the local community for a period not exceeding six months for purposes of his reform.

(6) A Child Panel may in the course of mediation propose an apology, restitution to the offended person or service by the child to the offended person.

Sub-Part II—Family Tribunals

33. Family Tribunals—

(1) There shall be Family Tribunals which shall exercise the jurisdiction provided under section 35 and any other provisions of this Act.

(2) Any reference to a Family Tribunal in this Act shall be construed to mean a Community Tribunal established under the Courts Act, 1993 (Act 459).

34. Composition of Family Tribunal—

A Family Tribunal shall be duly constituted by a panel consisting of a Chairman and not less than two or more than four other members including a social welfare officer appointed by the Chief Justice on the recommendation of the Director of Social Welfare.

35. Jurisdiction of Family Tribunal—

A Family Tribunal shall have jurisdiction in matters concerning parentage, custody, access and maintenance of children and shall exercise such other powers as are conferred on it by this Act or under any other enactment.

36. Family Tribunal sittings—

(1) A Family Tribunal shall sit either in a different building or room from that in which sittings of other courts are held, or on different days from those on which sittings of other courts are held and no person shall be present at any sitting of a Family Tribunal except—

(a) members and officers of the Family Tribunal;

(b) parties to the case before the Family Tribunal, their counsel, witnesses and other persons directly concerned in the case;

(c) the parent or guardian of the child before the Family Tribunal;

(d) probation and social welfare officers; and

(e) any other person whom the Family Tribunal authorises to be present.

(2) The Chairman of a Family Tribunal shall arrange for its sitting as often as possible to dispose of cases expeditiously.

37. Procedure at Family Tribunal—

The proceedings at a Family Tribunal shall be as informal as possible and shall be by enquiry and not by adversarial procedures.

38. Rights of the child at Family Tribunal—

- (1) A child shall have a right to legal representation at a Family Tribunal.
- (2) A child shall have a right to give an account and express an opinion at a Family Tribunal.
- (3) A child's right to privacy shall be respected throughout the proceedings at a Family Tribunal.
- (4) The right of appeal shall be explained to the child, guardian and parents.

39. No publication of information on child—

- (1) No person shall publish any information that may lead to the identification of a child in any matter before a Family Tribunal except with the permission of the Family Tribunal.
- (2) Any person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ~5 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both.

Part III : Parentage, Custody, Access and Maintenance

Sub-Part I—Parentage

40. Application for parentage—

- (1) The following persons may apply to a Family Tribunal for an order to confirm the parentage of a child—
 - (a) the child;
 - (b) the parent of a child;
 - (c) the guardian of a child;
 - (d) a probation officer;
 - (e) a social welfare officer; or
 - (f) any other interested person.
- (2) The application to the Family Tribunal may be made—
 - (a) before the child is born; or
 - (b) within three years after the death of the father or mother of a child; or
 - (c) before a child is eighteen years of age or after the child has attained that age with, special leave of the Family Tribunal.

41. Evidence of parentage—

- The following shall be considered by a Family Tribunal as evidence of parentage—
- (a) the name of the parent entered in the register of births;
 - (b) performance of customary ceremony by the father of the child;
 - (c) refusal by the parent to submit to a medical test;
 - (d) public acknowledgment of parentage; and
 - (e) any other matter that the Family Tribunal may consider relevant.

42. Medical test—

The Family Tribunal may order the alleged parent to submit to a medical test and the Tribunal shall on the basis of the evidence before it make such order as it considers appropriate.

Sub-Part II—Custody and Access

43. Custody—

A parent, family member or any person who is raising a child may apply to a Family Tribunal for custody of the child.

44. Access—

A parent, family member or any person who has been caring for a child may apply to a Family Tribunal for periodic access to the child.

45. Considerations for custody or access—

(1) A Family Tribunal shall consider the best interest of the child and the importance of a young child being with his mother when making an order for custody or access.

(2) Subject to subsection (1) a Family Tribunal shall also consider—

- (a) the age of the child;
- (b) that it is preferable for a child to be with his parents except if his rights are persistently being abused by his parents;
- (c) the views of the child if the views have been independently given;
- (d) that it is desirable to keep siblings together;
- (e) the need for continuity in the care and control of the child; and
- (f) any other matter that the Family Tribunal may consider relevant.

46. Unlawful child removal—

No person shall unlawfully remove a child from another person who has the lawful custody of the child.

Sub-Part III—Maintenance

47. Duty to maintain a child—

(1) A parent or any other person who is legally liable to maintain a child or contribute towards the maintenance of the child is under a duty to supply the necessaries of health, life, education, and reasonable shelter for the child.

(2) For the purpose of this section, education means basic education.

48. Application for maintenance order—

(1) The following persons who have custody of a child may apply to a Family Tribunal for a maintenance order for the child—

- (a) a parent of the child;
- (b) the guardian of the child; or
- (c) any other person.

(2) The following may also apply to a Family Tribunal for a maintenance order—

- (a) the child by his next friend;
- (b) a probation officer;
- (c) a social welfare officer; or
- (d) the Commission on Human Rights and Administrative Justice.

(3) The application for maintenance may be made against any person who is liable to maintain the child or contribute towards the maintenance of the child.

49. Considerations for maintenance orders—

A Family Tribunal shall consider the following when making a maintenance order—

- (a) the income and wealth of both parents of the child or of the person legally liable to maintain the child;
- (b) any impairment of the earning capacity of the person with a duty to maintain the child;
- (c) the financial responsibility of the person with respect to the maintenance of other children;
- (d) the cost of living in the area where the child is resident;
- (e) the rights of the child under this Act; and
- (f) any other matter which the Family Tribunal considers relevant.

50. Request for social enquiry report—

(1) A Family Tribunal may request that a probation officer or social welfare officer prepare a social enquiry report on the issue of maintenance before it for consideration.

(2) The Family Tribunal shall in making any order consider the social enquiry report prepared by the probation officer or social welfare officer.

51. Form of maintenance order—

(1) A Family Tribunal may award maintenance to the mother of a child whether married to the father or not where the father has been identified, and the maintenance shall include the following—

- (a) medical expenses for the duration of her pregnancy, delivery or death of the child;
- (b) a periodic allowance for the maintenance of the mother during her period of pregnancy and for a further period of nine months after the delivery of the child; and
- (c) the payment of a reasonable sum to be determined by the Family Tribunal for the continued education of the mother if she is a child herself.

(2) A Family Tribunal may order a periodic payment or lump sum payment for the maintenance of a child and the earnings or property of the person liable may be attached.

(3) The attachment order should be applicable in all cases of failure to pay maintenance.

(4) When considering an application for maintenance, a Family Tribunal may make a maintenance order which it considers reasonable for any child in the household.

(5) A Family Tribunal may make an order for arrears of maintenance against any person liable to pay the maintenance.

52. Persons entitled to maintenance order—

(1) Any person who has custody of a child who is the subject of a maintenance order is entitled to receive and administer the maintenance order of the Family Tribunal.

(2) If the parent, guardian or whoever has custody of the child should cease to be a fit person, the Family Tribunal of the area where the child is resident may appoint another person to have custody of the child and administer the maintenance order and that person shall act as if originally appointed by the Family Tribunal.

53. Duration of order—

(1) A maintenance order issued by a Family Tribunal shall expire when the child attains the age of eighteen years or dies before that age.

(2) A maintenance order shall lapse before the child attains the age of eighteen years if before that age the child is gainfully employed.

54. Continuation of maintenance orders in certain cases—

(1) Notwithstanding section 53 a Family Tribunal may continue a maintenance order after a child has attained eighteen years if the child is engaged in a course of continuing education or training after that age.

(2) An application under this section may be brought by a parent of the child, any person who has the custody of the young person or the young person concerned.

55. Variation or discharge of orders—

A Family Tribunal may if satisfied vary or discharge a maintenance order on the application of a parent, the person who has the custody of the child or young person or any other person legally liable to maintain the child.

56. Enforcement of order—

An action may be brought by any person to enforce a maintenance order thirty days after the order is made or due.

57. Non-custodial parent to have access to child—

A non-custodial parent in respect of whom an application is made to a Family Tribunal for an order of parentage, custody, access or maintenance under this Part shall have access to the child who is the subject of the order.

58. Duplicity of maintenance applications—

The provisions of this Act are subject to the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1971 (Act 367) and no action may be brought for a maintenance order if an application for maintenance is pending in matrimonial proceedings.

59. Offences under this Part—

Any person who—

- (a) unlawfully removes a child from another person who has lawful custody of the child contrary to section 46; or
- (b) fails to supply the necessaries of health, life, education and reasonable shelter for a child when legally liable to do so contrary to section 41; or
- (c) brings an action for a maintenance under this Part while an application for maintenance is pending in matrimonial proceedings, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ₡2 million or a term of imprisonment not exceeding six months or to both.

60. Procedure for applications—

The forms to be used and the procedure for applications under this Part shall be provided for by regulations made under this Act.

61. Waiver of fees—

The Chief Justice may by legislative instrument waive part or all of the filing fees or other fees payable for an application under this Part.

Part IV : Fosterage and Adoption

Sub-Part I—Fosterage

62. Person who can foster—

Any person above the age of twenty-one years of high moral character and proven integrity may be a foster-parent to a child.

63. Definition of foster-parent—

A foster parent is a person who is not the parent of a child but is willing to under-take the care and maintenance of the child.

64. Foster-care placement—

(1) Where—

- (a) a child has been committed to an approved residential home under a care order;
- (b) a recommendation has been made by a probation officer or social welfare officer that an approved residential home is the most suitable place for a child; or
- (c) a child has been placed in an approved residential home by any person, a committee comprising a probation officer, social welfare officer, person in charge of the approved residential home and two other people from the community with interest in the welfare of children selected by the Department may place the child with a foster parent.

(2) An application to foster a child shall otherwise be made to a probation officer, social welfare officer or to the person in charge of the approved residential home who shall forward the application to the Department.

(3) A foster-parent in whose care a child is placed or committed shall have the same responsibilities in respect of the child's maintenance as the parent of the child while the child remains in his care.

(4) A foster-parent is liable for contravention of any of the provisions under Part I of this Act.

(5) The Minister may by legislative instrument make regulations on fosterage.

Sub-Part II—Adoption application

65. Jurisdiction and procedure for adoption—

An application for an adoption order may be made to the High Court, Circuit Court or to any Family Tribunal within the jurisdiction where the applicant or the child resides at the date of the application.

66. Application for adoption—

(1) An application for an adoption order may be made jointly by a husband and his wife to adopt a child.

(2) An application for an adoption order may be made by the mother or father of the child alone or by either of them jointly with a spouse.

(3) An application for an adoption order may be made by a single person subject to the provisions of this Sub-Part except that this shall only apply to a citizen of Ghana and with due regard to the best interest of the child.

67. Restrictions on making adoption orders—

(1) An adoption order shall not be made unless' the applicant or, in the case of a joint application, one of the applicants—

- (a) is twenty-five years of age and is at least twenty-one years older than the child; or
- (b) is a relative of the child and is twenty-one years of age.

(2) A male applicant shall only be granted an adoption order if the application is in respect of his son or the court is satisfied that special circumstances warrant the order.

(3) An adoption order shall not be made for a child unless—

- (a) the applicant and the child reside in Ghana but this shall not apply if the applicant is a citizen of Ghana resident abroad;
- (b) the child has been continuously in the care and possession of the applicant for at least three consecutive months immediately preceding the date of the order; and
- (c) the applicant has notified the Department of his intention to apply for an adoption order for the child at least three months before the date of the order.

(4) Except as provided under section 66 an adoption order shall not be made to authorise more than one person to adopt a child.

68. Consent of parents and guardians—

(1) An adoption order shall only be made with the consent of the parents or guardian of the child.

(2) The court may dispense with the consent of any parent or guardian of the child if satisfied that the parent or guardian has neglected or persistently ill-treated the child, or that the person cannot be found or is incapable of giving consent or that the consent is unreasonably withheld.

(3) Any consent under this section may be given without the knowledge of the identity of the applicant for the order and where the consent is subsequently withdrawn only because the identity of the applicant was not known, the consent shall be considered to have been unreasonably withheld.

(4) Any parent or guardian of a child the subject of an application for adoption who has given consent for the adoption order shall not be entitled to remove the child from the care and possession of the applicant except with the permission of the court and in the best interest of the child.

69. Other consent—

(1) The court may require the consent of any person for an adoption order if it considers that the person has any rights or obligations in respect of the child such as under an agreement, court order or under customary law,

(2) Subject to sub-section (2) of section 66, where a married person is the sole applicant, the court may require the consent of the spouse of that person before the adoption order is made.

70. Conditions for adoption order—

(1) Before a court makes an adoption order it shall be satisfied that—

- (a) the consent required under this Sub-Part for the adoption order has been obtained and that the parent or guardian of the child understands that the effect of the adoption order will mean permanent deprivation of parental rights;
- (b) it is in the best interest of the child and that the wishes of the child have been considered if the child is capable of forming an opinion;
- (c) if the child is at least fourteen years of age, his consent to the adoption has been obtained unless it is impossible for the child to express an opinion; and
- (d) the applicant has not received or agreed to receive any payment and that no person has made or agreed to make any payment or given or agreed to give any reward to the applicant for the adoption except such as the court may order.

(2) The court may impose conditions when granting an adoption order and may require the applicant to enter a bond to make such provision in respect of the child as the court considers necessary.

(3) The adoption order shall include the following particulars the—

- (a) date and place of birth of the child;
- (b) name, gender and surname of the child before and after adoption;
- (c) name, surname, address, citizenship and occupation of the adopter; and
- (d) date of the adoption order, unless the court directs otherwise.

71. Interim order—

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the court may postpone the determination of the application and make an interim order giving the custody of the child to the applicant for a period not exceeding two years by way of probation and may attach such terms including provision for the maintenance, education and supervision of the child as it thinks fit.

(2) When making an interim order the court shall impose conditions that—

- (a) the child shall be under the supervision of a probation officer or a social welfare officer; and
- (b) the child shall not be taken out of Ghana without the permission of the court.

- (c) provide food for the apprentice unless otherwise agreed;
- (d) provide a safe and healthy environment for the apprentice;
- (e) be responsible for the moral training of the apprentice; and
- (f) protect the best interest of the apprentice generally.

100. Apprenticeship agreement—

(1) The parent, guardian or relative of an apprentice shall enter into an apprenticeship agreement with the craftsman.

(2) The agreement shall be in accordance with the custom which pertains to the specific trade but shall not include the performance of any induction ceremony which may conflict with the rights of the child contained in Sub-Part I of Part I of this Act.

(3) The agreement shall contain such matters as may be agreed between the parties and may include—

- (a) provision that the parent, guardian or relative shall bear the cost of protective clothing and the basic tools for the training of the apprentice;
- (b) a duty that the craftsman is to provide shelter for the apprentice; and
- (c) a provision that the craftsman is to give the apprentice an allowance of not less than half the minimum national daily wage for his daily sustenance.

(4) The agreement shall be in writing and shall contain provisions in the best interest of the parties and the apprentice.

(5) Should either party to the agreement contravene its terms, the agreement shall immediately lapse unless there is a contrary intention in the agreement.

101. Duties of apprentice—

An apprentice shall diligently and faithfully obey and serve the craftsman and shall agree—

- (a) that he will not absent himself from the apprenticeship without permission;
- (b) to prevent any deliberate damage to the property of the craftsman; and (c) not to conceal any damage to the property of the craftsman.

102. Release of apprentice—

(1) The conditions for the release of an apprentice upon the completion of his training shall not be exploitative and shall be in accordance with the best interest of the child under Sub-Part I of Part I of this Act.

(2) The craftsman shall on completion of a period of apprenticeship issue a certificate of release to the apprentice which shall indicate that the apprentice has completed his training.

(3) If the craftsman refuses to issue the certificate of release without just cause he commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ~2million or six months imprisonment or both.

103. Resolution of disputes—

Disputes related to an apprenticeship agreement shall be referred to the district labour officer of the district concerned by the parties to the apprenticeship agreement or the apprentice.

104. Application of Sub-Part I of this Part—

The provisions of Sub-Part I of this Part on Child Labour shall apply to this Sub-Part.

Part VI : Institutionalised Care and Miscellaneous Matters

Sub-Part I— Approved residential homes

105. Approval of residential home—

(1) The Government may establish a home referred to this Act as “a home” for the care of children in such areas as the Minister may determine.

(2) Any person or an NGO may also establish and operate a home for the care of children subject to the approval of the Minister.

(3) An application for the approval of a home shall be submitted to the Minister.

(4) The Minister shall cause the home to be inspected by the Department and if the home meets the required standard it shall be approved by notice published in the Gazette.

(5) Upon approval by the Minister, the home shall obtain a license to operate issued by the Minister after payment of the prescribed fee but this provision shall not apply to a government home.

(6) Any non-governmental home in existence at the commencement of this Act shall apply to the Minister: for approval and the issue of a license within a period of six months from the commencement of this Act.

106. Department to monitor homes—

The Department of a District Assembly shall monitor homes within its district.

107. Power of Minister to give directives to homes—

The Minister may give such orders and directions to a home as may be expedient in the public interest.

108. Inspection—

The Minister may authorise the inspection of a home by the Department at any time to ensure that the home is being maintained at the required standard.

109. Admission of children to homes—

(1) A child may be admitted to a home—

- (a) pending the determination by a Family Tribunal of an order under Sub-Part II of Part I of this Act;
- (b) on the recommendation of a probation officer or social welfare officer who has determined that the approved home is the most suitable place for the child; or
- (c) if the child is an orphan and family care and fosterage are not available.

(2) If a home fails to maintain the required standard its license to operate may be cancelled or suspended by the Minister and alternative arrangements shall be made by the Department for the children in the home.

(3) It shall be the responsibility of the staff of a home, the probation and social welfare officer and any other person to assist a child resident in the home to become reunited with its parents, guardian or relatives.

(4) After a child has been returned to his family home from a home, the probation and social welfare officer shall keep in regular contact with the child and his family to ensure that the best interest of the child is sustained.

(5) Where a child is unable to return to his parents or to go to foster-parents or has no parent or foster-parent, he shall be encouraged and assisted by the home and the probation and social welfare officer to become independent and self-reliant.

110. Parental responsibility of staff of approved homes—

(1) While a child is in a home the staff of the home shall assume parental responsibility for the child and ensure that the rights of the child in Sub-Part I of Part I of this Act are protected.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-section (1) of this section, the parents, guardian or relatives of a child in a home shall supplement the efforts of the home to safeguard and promote the welfare of the child by visiting the child and otherwise protecting the interest of the child.

(3) Parental responsibility of a child in a home shall include an application to a Family Tribunal to protect the best interest of the child where necessary.

111. Power of Family Tribunal to order contribution—

(1) A Family Tribunal may order that the parent, guardian or relative of a child in a home shall contribute towards the maintenance of the child in the home.

(2) Any amount to be contributed shall be reasonable and may be varied by the Family Tribunal if there is a change in circumstances of the contributor.

112. Approved home and adoption—

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act a child in a home shall be put up for adoption if it is in the best interest of the child.

(2) The decision for the adoption of a child in a home shall be taken by the Department in consultation with the management of the home.

113. Regulations and homes—

The Minister may by legislative instrument make regulations for homes.

114. Offences under this Sub-Part—

(1) The penalty for contravention in respect of the rights of the child and parental duty in section 15 of this Act shall apply to any person in a home who fails to uphold the rights of the child.

(2) Any person who—

(a) operates a home without a license issued by the Minister, or

(b) continues to operate a home in contravention of this Sub-Part; or

(c) obstructs or hinders any person conducting an inspection under this Sub-Part, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ₡5 million or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year or to both and in the case of a continuing offence to a further fine not exceeding ₡100,000 for each day on which the offence continues.

Sub Part II—Day-Care Centres

115. Application to operate day-care centre—

(1) An application for a permit to operate a day-care centre shall be submitted by the applicant to the Department.

(2) The application shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed in a bye-law of a District Assembly.

(3) The Department shall inspect the proposed day-care centre and if it meets the required standard it shall approve the application and grant a permit upon payment of the fee for the permit prescribed in a bye-law.

(4) Any day-care centre in operation without a permit granted by a Department shall be closed on fourteen days notice to the owner or operator by the Department.

116. Inspection—

(1) The Department shall inspect the premises, books, accounts and other records of a day-care centre at least once in every six months and shall submit a report of the inspection to the Social Services Sub-Committee of a District Assembly.

(2) If the inspection reveals that the day-care centre is not being managed efficiently in the best interest of the children, the Department shall suspend the permit and the owner or operator shall be ordered to make good any default within a stipulated time.

(3) If the owner or operator fails to make good the default within the stipulated time, the permit shall be cancelled.

117. Bye-laws and guidelines—

A District Assembly shall issue such bye-laws and guidelines as it may determine for the operation of day-care centres within its district.

118. Policy directives—

The Ministry for Social Welfare and the Ministry for Education may issue such policy directives as may be necessary for the operation of day-care centres.

119. Existing operators—

Any person who owns or operates a day-care centre before the commencement of this Act who intends to continue to operate the day-care centre shall apply to the Department for a permit within six months of the commencement of this Act.

120. Offences under this Sub-Part—

Any person who—

- (a) operates a day-care centre without a permit issued by the Department; or
- (b) continues to operate a day-care centre in contravention of this Part; or
